

The Blacksmith Cottage

The building which was the blacksmith's cottage is now 89 Penlan Road. The cottage, a single-storey stone building, dates from around 1760 and originally had a thatched roof, now replaced by a modern tiled roof. The current kitchen area incorporates the former blacksmith's oven, in the form of a brick dome.

