

HORATIO'S GARDEN WALES

The Welsh Spinal Cord Injury Rehabilitation Centre
University Hospital Llandough, Cardiff

Horatio's Garden Wales opened in March 2022 and supports patients, their loved ones and NHS staff affected by spinal cord injury from across south and mid-Wales.

Designed by two-time Chelsea Gold Medal winner Sarah Price, the garden is a beautiful, fully accessible sanctuary offering:

- Stunning seasonal planting
- Secluded seating areas with spectacular views
- A homely garden pavilion with drinks kitchen
- A greenhouse for horticultural therapy sessions
- Creative workshops
- Seasonal events

The garden is cared for by the charity's team of volunteers, who are led by a Head Gardener and a Garden Administrator. Together, they nurture the planting, organise activities and support everyone as they enjoy using the garden.

"It's mind blowing. A haven in a place that's quite crazy."

Horatio's Garden is a national charity creating and nurturing beautiful, accessible gardens in the heart of NHS spinal injury centres.
