

Pen-Y-Lan House

Pen-y-Lan House is now number 91 Penlan Road. This house is one of the oldest houses in Llandough. It was built in 1680, and the original construction was one-up, one-down, but has been extended to the rear, and is now a 3-bed-roomed house, though retaining some earlier features such as exposed wooden beams. The construction is of stone, with originally a thatched roof, now replaced by slate.
